MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Greetings in the Lord:

This past Triduum was truly unforgettable. Each liturgy was celebrated with great solemnity. How blessed we are to have been made a "new creation in Christ" (St. Leo the Great). It was especially moving to see so many young people from other faith traditions become baptized and begin to follow Jesus Christ who is "the way, and the truth, and the life" (Jn 14:6).

As was mentioned during the Easter Sunday announcements, Sonal Castelino, who was instrumental in coordinating the Triduum liturgies, is no longer part of the Newman team. She has decided to move on in her career after 4 years of employment by Newman, serving our community. We are grateful for her Christian testimony and pray for her continued success.

I am pleased to introduce you all to our new Program and Volunteer Coordinator - Alexandra Whittle. She will introduce herself over the next few weeks, whether it be at Sunday Masses or various events. In the meantime, she was kind enough to share a bit about herself in this bulletin. We pray for her success and are confident that her talents will be a great asset in helping us advance our mission of spreading the Gospel.

God bless, Fr Peter

Meet Newman Centre's new Program and Volunteer Coordinator

"My name is Alexandra Whittle and I am very excited to be joining the Newman community. I thoroughly enjoy people and understanding different perspectives about why and how we behave as individuals and as a community, which is what led me to complete my degree in Sociology. I further specialized as a Social Services Worker for Immigrants and Refugees in my Postgraduate studies.

I have travelled to Mexico on a social justice trip and also to Jordan to interview and identify refugees for resettlement to Canada through Project Hope which was launched by the Archdiocese of Toronto. I also travelled to Spain for World Youth day in 2011. I have always loved working with people in various settings. I grew up in the Catholic church and was quite involved in different ministries. I am grateful for the ways in which this involvement has been at the core of helping me develop as an individual in this society.

I am truly looking forward to contributing to the vision and mission of the Newman Centre."
