WHAT'S HAPPENING AT NEWMAN

Top: Our New Newmanite Supper welcomed over 50 new members.

Bottom (L): U of T Newman Catholic Students' Club organized Nuit Benie on the night of Nuit Blanche. Students and volunteers worked hard to invite people from the street. The fruits of their labour saw 308 people come into the chapel between 8 pm - 8 am for Adoration.

Bottom (R): Children and their parents singing at the monthly Family Prayer and Potluck at Newman Centre. Parents find support from one another in raising their families.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Notice: Mass on the Thanksgiving Day holiday, Monday, October 9th will be at 9:30 am at Newman.

Newman and the Great Apostasia: Thursday, October 12th, 7 pm, Newman Chapel
Join us for our first Faith and Reason lecture with Newman scholar, Edward Short

About the lecture: Growing up under the shadow of the radically anti-Christian French Revolution, John Henry Newman lived to see the apostasy first articulated by the philosophes spread throughout English and European society. Since he lived to witness nearly the entirety of the nineteenth century, from 1801 to 1890, he would chart the rise and the efflorescence of this apostasy with brilliant insight. In "Newman and the Great Apostasia," Mr. Short shows how Newman's apprehension of the character of this apostasy helped him to become not only a good shepherd of his far-flung flock but a prophetic historian.

Doors open at 6:30 pm. A reception will be held after the lecture. All are welcome.
