

The Newman
Foundation of Toronto

November 2014

Meet Natasha Milavec - A Catholic leader now and in the future!

“The best part of Newman is being supported and formed, and also challenged by your peers... Having the community (Newman Centre) is absolutely priceless... I don’t know what I would do without it!” — Natasha Milavec

Natasha Milavec is a fourth year Concurrent Education student at the University of Toronto. She hopes to continue practicing her faith and leadership skills in a career as a Catholic secondary school teacher. As a member of the Newman Catholic Students Club Executive, she has honed her skills in Catholic leadership. This past summer, Natasha traveled to Bosnia through the Intercordia Program where she shared her faith in concrete service roles. Also, with the financial aid of the Newman Catholic Leadership Bursary Fund, she attended the Canadian Catholic Students Association (CCSA) conference in Edmonton where she was elected as one of only six students representing the CCSA national executive for 2014-2015. Dear Friend,

The invaluable lessons learned by Natasha will make her a wise leader in the Catholic community. Her outstanding accomplishments are an example of our determination to nurture future Catholic leaders.

What is a Catholic leader? A Catholic leader is one who lives and breathes the Catholic faith in the community, one who supports the Church and encourages others to do so, one who demonstrates faith in an open and honest manner, setting an example for others to follow.

At the Newman Centre, we have created a Campus Ministry Program which provides opportunities for faith studies, lectures, leadership development, catechesis, prayer, mission trips, ecumenical activities, and more. In all these efforts, we are inspired by the vision of Blessed John Henry Cardinal Newman to integrate faith and reason on the university campus. Our great hope is to form future Catholic leaders.

However, these efforts need your continuous prayers and financial support! Here is how your donations will be used:

Currently, there are approximately 18,000 self-identified Catholic students at the University of Toronto. We have already made contact with at least 1,500 students, 300 of which are actively involved in our programs. We anticipate reaching another 1,000 this school year.

We have designed our programs to give students a broad understanding of what it means to be Catholic, and to live their lives in light of their call to be modern day Saints. We create solid Catholic leaders who will maintain the vibrancy of our faith across Canada and around the world.

In 2014, the Newman Foundation needs to raise $87,000 to cover the costs of the Newman Campus Ministry Programs.

During this season of giving, our students rely on your support. Your gift of ($500, $300, $100 or other amount) will enable us to support this worthwhile program.

May God reward your generosity! Merry Christmas!

Yours sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Chris Cauchi, Executive Director
