

What is this retreat about?

Theology of the Body is the theology surrounding human sexuality and the meaning of the human body. This retreat will help us dive deeper into our own identities as men and women, what God's plan for human sexuality is, and how this applies to our universal call to holiness and the continual self-gift we are called to in all of our lives. We will have time for talks, fellowship, prayer, food and more!

Retreat Leader

Marcel LeJeune is a national speaker who is known for his passion, wisdom, and his ability to hold an audience's attention, while challenging them to go deeper with Christ and His Church. He is the author of Set Free to Love: Lives Changed by the Theology of the Body, and he is a contributor to two other books. He is also a regular guest on EWTN radio and Relevant Radio, and has been featured on EWTN Television.

Marcel is blessed to be the Assistant Director of Campus Ministry at St. Mary's Catholic Center at Texas A&M University since 2006, the largest campus ministry in the country. He oversees the ministry team and all of the daily operation of the ministries and programs. Marcel and his wife, Kristy, have 5 children.
